Chase Bridge is a substantial one-arched structure, rendered picturesque by the hand of Time and the artistic growth of ivy, which spans the pretty little Amber stream near the village and important junction of Ambergate. The vicinity of this stream is the most charming part of this section of the Peak country. In the locality are the lime works erected by George Stephenson.

Printed in England.

Dear Aunt will be over Thursday if nothing here 6-30. as I cannot get away early on Lady is not going before Thursday afternoon. hope to find you better love to all Mary
